From 7 to 9 March, the event "Views of the Indigenous Peoples of Brazil" took place in Hannover, organised by the L3S Research Center in cooperation with the International Office of Leibniz Universität Hannover and the South America Center. Guests of the cultural exchange were the tribal leader Shirley Djukurnā of the Krenak tribe (Minas Gerais), Diogo Juruna of the Xavante tribe (Mato Grosso) and the film director Armando Lacerda.

The cultural event began on Tuesday, 6 March, at the town hall with Deputy Lord Mayor Thomas Hermann welcoming the guests from Brazil. The various events at the Raschplatz cinema, at TIB as well as in the Waldorfschule and in the Tellkampfschule were welcomed by a large public and were received with great interest by the audience.

Great Interest in Culture of Indigenous Peoples of Brazil
