„Research in Germany“ at the European Career Fair 2015 at MIT, Cambridge (USA)

Are you ready to take the next step in your scientific career in Hannover i.e. at the Web Science oriented L3S Research Center? Meet us and further delegations of more than 38 German universities and research institutions at the next European Career Fair, which will be held at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) from February 21 to 23 in Cambridge/Boston, USA. Take the opportunity and learn about vacant PhD and postdoctoral positions at the L3S Research Center of the Leibniz Universität of Hannover and other faculties at the university!

The German delegation at the European Career Fair 2015 has been organised by the German Academic Exchange Service as part of the collaborative project “International Research Marketing”. Under the brand “Research in Germany” the German Academic Exchange Service, the Alexander von Humboldt Foundation, the German Research Foundation and the Fraunhofer Gesellschaft initiate various international events and communication measures funded by the German Federal Ministry of Education and Research (BMBF) to strengthen and expand R&D collaboration between Germany and international partners. We are expecting more than 1,000 visitors and researchers at the conference.

We are looking forward to meeting you, there; for more information in advance have a look under: https://ecf.fairsey.com/
