

Web Governance

In the last 15 years the web triggered significant changes in economics, politics and culture. The research area Web Governance is concerned with data security and privacy, management and some economical aspects of the web.