New Member at L3S

We are welcoming Prof. Gabriele Wagner as a new member at L3S. Since 2010 Gabriele Wagner is Full Professor at the Leibniz University Hannover, Department of Sociology.

She studied sociology at the University of Marburg and worked as a researcher at the Institute of Sociology at the University of Duisburg, the Faculty of Sociology at Bielefeld University and the Institute of Social Research, Frankfurt. She received her doctorate from the Bielefeld University in 2002. In 2008 she finished her habilitation (Venia legendi) in Sociology, Bielefeld University. She carried out the duties of a deputy professorship in Sociology of Organization from October 2009 to September 2010 at the University of Wuppertal.

Her main research interests are work and organization studies and sociology of recognition.